The Limited Vehicle Warranty would remain in effect for all other components on the vehicle that were not affected by the improper repair. ElectraMeccanica Limited Battery Warranty

The battery system components are designed for on-road driving conditions.

This Limited Battery Warranty is void if the odometer or any VIN label is tampered with or modified.

If your battery pack requires warranty service, ElectraMeccanica will repair or replace the affected component(s). When replacing a component of a battery pack, ElectraMeccanica will ensure that the replacement battery's energy capacity is at least equal to the capacity of the replaced battery at the time of the failure.

Damage to the battery resulting from the following activities is not covered under this Limited Battery Warranty:

- Physically changing or damaging the battery, including the hardware and software (other than as specified in your Owner's Manual)
- Exposing the battery to direct flame or,
- Flooding of the battery pack or exposure to excessive water.

Over time and vehicle distance traveled, some customers may experience a gradual reduction of driving range (capacity loss in the battery pack). This reduction is a standard characteristic of a rechargeable lithium-ion battery. It does not constitute a warranty condition or battery failure. Customers experiencing higher than expected reduction may contact a certified service provider to determine if the capacity is within normal parameters.
